The directors shall have power to hold their meetings and to keep the books (except any books required to be kept in the State of Missouri, pursuant to the laws thereof) at any place within or without the State of Missouri.

ARTICLE XI.

11.1. The Corporation may agree to the terms and conditions upon which any director or officer accepts his office or position and in its Bylaws or by contract may agree to indemnify and protect each and all of such persons and any person who, at the request of the Corporation served as a director or officer of another Corporation in which this Corporation owned stock against all costs and expenses reasonably incurred by any or all of them, and all liability imposed or threatened to be imposed upon any or all of them, by reason of or arising out of their or any of them being or having been a director or officer of this Corporation or of such other corporation; but any such Bylaw or contractual provision shall not be exclusive of any other right or rights of any such director or officer to be indemnified and protected against such costs and liabilities which he may otherwise possess.

11.2. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of this Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of this Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of this Corporation as a director, officer, employee, partner, trustee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, taxes and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of this Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of this Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

11.3. This Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit by or in the right of this Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of this Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of this Corporation as a director, officer, employee, partner, trustee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of this Corporation except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court shall deem proper. Any indemnification under this Article XI (unless ordered by a Court) shall be made by this Corporation only as authorized in the specific instance upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee, partner, trustee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in this Article XI. Such determination shall be made (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (2) if such quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested Directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (3) by the shareholders. To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in this Article XI, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding.

11.4. Expenses incurred in defending any actual or threatened civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by this Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific instance upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee, partner, trustee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall be ultimately determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article XI.

11.5. The indemnification provided by this Article XI shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested Directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has caused to be a director, officer, employee, partner, trustee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

11.6. For the purposes of this Article XI, references to this "Corporation" include all constituent corporations absorbed in a consolidation or merger as well as the resulting or surviving corporation so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, partner, trustee or agent of such a constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee, partner, trustee or agent of another enterprise shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Article XI with respect to the resulting surviving corporation in the same capacity.

11.7. In the event any provision of this Article XI shall be held invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such holding shall not invalidate any other provisions of this Article XI and any other provisions of this Article XI shall be construed as if such invalid provisions had not been contained in this Article XI.

AMENDED AND RESTATED BY-LAWS OF RAVE RESTAURANT GROUP, INC.

ARTICLE I - OFFICE

The principal office of the Corporation shall be located in Denton County, Texas. The Corporation may have offices at such other places, both within and without the State of Missouri, as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

ARTICLE II - SEAL

The corporate seal shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation.

ARTICLE III - SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

Section 1. Place of Meeting. All meetings of the shareholders shall be held at such location, either within or without the State of Missouri, as designated, from time to time, by a majority of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held on Wednesday of the second full calendar week of December of each year at 10:00 a.m., or any other day determined by the Board of Directors within sixty (60) calendar days before or after such date, when the shareholders shall conduct business as shall properly come before the meeting.

Section 3. Quorum. The holders of a majority of the stock issued and outstanding entitled to vote at any meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, shall be requisite and shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the shareholders for the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided by express provision of the statutes, the Articles of Incorporation or by these By-laws.

Section 4. Voting. At each meeting of the shareholders, every shareholder entitled to vote at any meeting shall be entitled to vote in person, or by proxy, appointed by an instrument in writing subscribed by such shareholder, or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact, and he shall have one vote for each share of stock registered in his name at the time of the closing of the transfer books for said meeting. The vote of the holders of a majority of the stock having voting power, present in person or represented by proxy, shall decide any question brought before such meeting, unless the question is one upon which by express provision of the statutes, the Articles of Incorporation or these By-laws, a different vote is required, in which case, such express provision shall govern and control the decision of such questions.

Section 5. No Cumulative Voting. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, cumulative voting is not permitted with respect to the election of directors and, thus, no shareholders entitled to vote in the election of directors shall have the right to cast as many votes in the aggregate as shall equal the number of votes held by the shareholders in the Corporation, multiplied by the number of directors to be elected at the election, for one candidate, or distribute them among two or more candidates.

Section 6. Notice of Meeting. Notice of any special or annual meeting shall be served personally on each shareholder or shall be mailed to each shareholder at such address as appears on the stock book of the Corporation not less than ten (10) days nor more than sixty (60) days before such meeting. Service or mailing of such notice shall be made by the Secretary. In addition, such published notice shall be given as required by law. The notice of any special meeting shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting.

Section 7. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders for any purpose or purposes may be called by the Chief Executive Officer or by the Board of Directors, or by the Secretary at the request in writing by shareholders owning at least one-third (1/3) in amount of the entire capital stock of the Corporation issued and outstanding.

Section 8. Waiver of Notice. Any shareholder may waive notice of any meeting of the shareholders, by a writing signed by him, or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact, either before or after the time of such meeting. A copy of such waiver shall be entered in the minutes, and shall be deemed to be the notice required by law or by these By-laws. Any shareholder present in person, represented by proxy or represented by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact, at any meeting of the shareholders, shall be deemed to have thereby waived notice of such meeting, except where a shareholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 9. Informal Action by Shareholders. Whenever the vote of shareholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken in connection with any corporate action by any provisions of the statutes, the Articles of Incorporation or these By-laws, the meeting, any notice thereof and vote of shareholders thereat may be dispensed with if all the shareholders who would have been entitled to vote upon the action, if such meeting were held, shall consent in writing to such corporate action being taken. Such consents shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the shareholders at a meeting duly held, and may be stated as such in any certificate or document filed under the statutes of Missouri. Such written consent shall be filed with the minutes of shareholders' meetings.

Section 10. Shareholders Entitled to Vote. The Board of Directors may prescribe a period not exceeding sixty (60) days prior to any meeting of the shareholders during which no transfer of stock on the books of the Corporation may be made. The Board of Directors may fix a day not more than sixty (60) days prior to the holding of any meeting of the shareholders as the day as of which shareholders are entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting.

Section 11. Organization. The Chairman of the Board, and in his absence, the Chief Executive Officer, and in his absence, the President, and in the absence of the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President and all the Vice Presidents, a chairman pro tem chosen by the shareholders present, shall preside at such meeting of shareholders and shall act as chairman thereof. The Secretary, and in his absence the Assistant Secretary or a Secretary pro tem chosen by the shareholders present, shall act as secretary of all meetings of the shareholders.

Section 12. Adjournment. If at any meeting of the shareholders, a quorum shall fail to attend at the time and place for which the meeting was called, or if the business of such meeting shall not be completed, the shareholders present in person, represented by proxy may, by a majority vote, adjourn the meeting from day to day or from time to time, not exceeding ninety (90) days from such adjournment without further notice until a quorum shall attend or the business thereof shall be completed. At any such adjourned meeting, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called.

ARTICLE IV - DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election. The number of directors of the Corporation constituting the Board of Directors shall be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors, but in no event shall the number of Directors be less than one nor more than fifteen. No decrease in the number of Directors shall have the effect of reducing the term of any incumbent Director. . Each Director shall hold office until such Director's successor has been elected and has qualified, or until such Director's death, retirement, disqualification, resignation or removal.

Section 2. Classes, Election and Term. There shall be one (1) class of directors, who shall be elected annually. Any director elected to fill any vacancy on the Board of Directors shall hold office for the remainder of the full term of the director whose position such newly elected director fills.

Section 3. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors arising from the death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal from office of one or more Directors, may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director. Any Director elected to fill a vacancy shall have the same remaining term as that of his or her predecessor.

Section 4. Powers of the Board. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation, and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute, or by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these By-laws, directed or required to be exercised or done by the shareholders.

Section 5. Removal of Directors. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the shareholders shall have the power, by a vote of the holders of a majority of seventy-five percent (75%) of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of Directors at any meeting expressly called for that purpose, to remove any Director from office with or without cause. Such meeting shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of Texas or at such other location within or without the States of Missouri or Texas, as directed, from time to time, by the Board of Directors. If less than the entire Board is to be removed, no one of the Directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him, if then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V - MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, both regular and special, may be held at any place either within or without the State of Missouri. Members of the Board of Directors or of any committee designated by the Board of Directors may participate in a meeting of the Board or committee by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting in this manner shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

Section 2. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such time and place as shall from time to time be determined by the Board.

Section 3. Notice of Regular Meetings. After the time and place of regular meetings shall have been determined, no notice of any regular meetings need be given. Notice of any change in the place of holding any regular meeting, or any adjournment of a regular meeting, shall be given by mail, telegram, or telephone not less than forty-eight (48) hours before such meeting, to all Directors who were absent at the time such action was taken.

Section 4. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board, for any purpose, may be called by the Chairman of the Board on three (3) days' notice to each Director, either personally, by mail or by telegram. Upon like notice, the Secretary of the Corporation, upon the written request of a majority of the Directors, shall call a special meeting of the Board. Such request shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting. The officer calling the special meeting may designate the place for holding same.

Section 5. Quorum. At all meetings of the Board, a majority of the Directors entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the Directors so entitled to vote, present at any meeting at which there is a quorum, shall be the act of the Board of Directors, except where otherwise provided by statute, by the Articles of Incorporation or by these By-laws. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the Directors entitled to vote present thereat may adjourn the meeting, from time to time, without notice other than announcement, at the meeting that the meeting is adjourned until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Waiver of Notice. Any Director may waive notice of any meeting of the Board by a writing signed by him, either before or after the time of such meeting. A copy of such waiver shall be entered in the minutes and shall be deemed to be the notice required by statute or by these By-laws. Any Director present in person, or by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, at any meeting of the Board, shall be deemed to have thereby waived notice of such meeting, except where a Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 7. Informal Meetings. Whenever the vote of Directors at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken in connection with any corporate action by any provisions of the statutes or of the Articles of Incorporation, the meeting, any notice thereof, and vote of Directors thereat, may be dispensed with if all the Directors who would have been entitled to vote upon the action, if such meeting were held, shall consent in writing to such corporate action being taken. Such written consent shall be filed with the minutes of the Board.

Section 8. Organization. The Chairman of the Board, and in his absence, the Chief Executive Officer, and in his absence, the President, and in the absence of the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President and all the Vice Presidents, a chairman pro tem chosen by the Directors present, shall preside at each meeting of the Directors and shall act as Chairman thereof. The Secretary, and in his absence, the Assistant Secretary, and in his absence a secretary pro tem chosen by the Directors present, shall act as Secretary of all meetings of the Directors.

Section 9. Minutes and Statements. The Board of Directors shall cause to be kept a complete record of their meetings and acts, and of the proceedings of the shareholders.

ARTICLE VI - OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The officers of this Corporation shall be a Chairman of the Board, any number of Vice Chairmen (who may be specifically designated with a descriptive title), a President, one or more Vice Presidents (any one of whom may be specifically designated or Senior Vice President, or some particular phrase descriptive of a portion of the Corporation's business), a Secretary, one or more Assistant Secretaries, and a Treasurer, all of whom shall be chosen by the Board of Directors. Any person may hold two or more offices, except the offices of President and Secretary.

Section 2. Subordinate Officers and Employees. The Board of Directors may appoint such other officers and agents, as it may deem necessary, who shall hold their offices for such terms, and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties, as shall be determined from time to time by the Board.

When authorizing such issue of a new certificate or certificates, the Board of Directors or the Transfer Agent and Registrant may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost or destroyed certificate or certificates or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as it shall require, and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost or destroyed.

ARTICLE IX - DEALINGS WITH COMPANIES IN WHICH DIRECTORS MAY HAVE AN INTEREST

Inasmuch as the Directors of this Corporation are or may be persons of diversified business interests, and are likely to be connected with other corporations with which from time to time this Corporation may have business dealings, no contract or other transaction between this Corporation and any other corporation shall be affected by the fact that Directors of this Corporation are interested in, or are directors or officers of such other corporation.

ARTICLE X - MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Inspection of Books. The Directors shall determine, from time to time, whether, and if allowed, when and under what conditions and regulations, the accounts and books of the Corporation (except such as may by statute be specifically open to inspection) or any of them, shall be open to inspection of the shareholders, and shareholders' rights, in this respect, are and shall be restricted and limited accordingly.

Section 3. Checks and Notes. All checks and drafts on the Corporation's bank accounts, and all bills of exchange and promissory notes, and all acceptances, obligations and other instruments for the payment of money, shall be signed by such officer or officers, or agent or agents, as shall be thereunto duly authorized, from time to time, by the Board of Directors; provided, that checks drawn on the Corporation's payroll, dividend and special accounts, may bear the facsimile signatures, affixed thereto by a mechanical device, of such officers or agents as the Board of Directors may authorize.

Section 4. Dividends. The Board of Directors shall declare such dividends, as they in their discretion see fit, whenever the condition of the Corporation, in their opinion, shall warrant the same. The Board may declare dividends in cash, in property or in capital stock.

Section 5. Notices. Whenever, under the provisions of these By-laws, notice is required to be given to any Director, officer or shareholder, it shall not be construed to mean personal notice, but such notice may be given in writing by depositing the same in the post office or letter box, in a postage paid sealed wrapper addressed to such shareholder, officer or Director at such address as appears on the records of the Corporation, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be thus mailed.

ARTICLE XI - INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS AGAINST LIABILITIES AND EXPENSE IN ACTIONS

Section 1. Indemnification with Respect to Third Party Actions. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of this Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of this Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of this Corporation as a director, officer, employee, partner, trustee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, taxes and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of this Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of this Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Indemnification with Respect to Actions by or in the Right of the Corporation. This Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit by or in the right of this Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of this Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of this Corporation as a director, officer, employee, partner, trustee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of this Corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter if such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought, shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper. Any indemnification under this Article XI (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by this Corporation only as authorized in the specific instance upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee, partner, trustee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in this Article XI. Such determination shall be made (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (2) if such quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested Directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (3) by the shareholders. To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in this Article XI, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees), actually and reasonably incurred by him, in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding.

Section 3. Payment of Expenses in Advance of Disposition of Action. Expenses incurred in defending any actual or threatened civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding may be paid by this Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding, as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific instance upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee, partner, trustee or agent to repay such amount, unless it shall be ultimately determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article XI.

Section 4. Indemnification Provided in this Article Non-Exclusive. The indemnification provided in this Article XI shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any By-law, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested Directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, partner, trustee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrator of such a person.

Section 5. Definition of "Corporation". For the purposes of this Article XI, references to this "Corporation" include all constituent corporations absorbed in a consolidation or merger, as well as the resulting or surviving corporation so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, partner, trustee or agent of such a constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee, partner, trustee or agent of another enterprise shall stand in the same position under the provision of this Article XI with respect to the resulting surviving corporation in the same capacity.

Section 6. Saving Clause. In the event any provision of this Article XI shall be held invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such holding shall not invalidate any other provisions of this Article XI and any other provisions of this Article XI shall be construed as if such invalid provisions had not been contained in this Article XI.

ARTICLE XII - AMENDMENTS

Subject to any and all restrictions imposed, or prohibitions provided by the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri, these By-laws may be altered, amended, suspended, or repealed and new By-laws may be adopted, from time to time, by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

AMERICA CRAVES RAVE RESTAURANT GROUP

Owner of Pie Five Pizza Co. and Pizza Inn poised for growth as company looks to the future with new name

(DALLAS, TX) January 8, 2015 – On January 7, 2015, Pizza Inn Holdings, Inc. changed its name to become RAVE Restaurant Group, Inc. The new name and a new “RAVE” trading symbol will be reflected on NASDAQ on Friday, January 9, 2015. The renamed company includes Pie Five Pizza Co., the nation’s leading fast casual pizza company, and Pizza Inn, one of the nation’s first dine-in pizza chains.

“Our new name, RAVE Restaurant Group, is a better reflection of our transformation,” said Randy Gier, Chief Eating Officer of RAVE Restaurant Group. “We are no longer a slow growth, single-brand restaurant company. We have high expectations for ourselves and our brands.”

“We are laser focused on becoming world class restaurant operators. In fact, the RAVE name comes from the first principle of our operating mission vision and values, ‘to create raveable, craveable, comeback quality food for our guests.’ ‘Restaurant Group’ reflects the multiple brands in our portfolio, today and into the future,” added Gier.

“Pie Five is leading the explosive fast casual pizza segment with solid unit level economics, impressive comparable store sales growth, and a strong pipeline of new corporate and franchise stores,” said Gier. “We are seeing continued double digit comp store sales performance, the expansion of company markets, and the signing of new franchise partners. The total number of new franchise and company-owned stores anticipated over the next 5 to 6 years is now over 400 restaurants.”

“We are equally pleased with the performance of our Pizza Inn brand. A brand which has struggled to grow in recent years has now recorded three consecutive quarters of comparable sales growth, and is continuing those trends into 2015,” added Gier. “We have developed a strong partnership with our franchise leadership, and are systematically addressing our barriers to growth. This started with fixing some fundamental quality issues and is extending into aligned Marketing initiatives, improved operating standards, and the development of tools and training for our restaurant managers and crew that will allow them to run world class restaurants across the system.”

“The stabilization, and now positive growth, of the Pizza Inn brand is critical to us,” said Tim Mullany, CFO. “It is not only our flagship brand and an important source of cash flow, but we have a commitment to our franchise partners, many of whom have made Pizza Inn their family business. Most importantly, we’re building a team of highly talented restaurant professionals and an infrastructure to support growth and consistent performance.”

Pie Five Pizza Co. is considered a pioneer of the fast casual pizza category and has twice been named among Fast Casual’s Top 15 “Movers & Shakers” (2013/2014). Pie Five has also been recognized as a 2012 Hot Concepts winner by Nation’s Restaurant News and one of “10 Hot New Restaurant Chains from Established Brands” by Forbes.com. Pie Five currently has 31 locations in nine states (Florida, Kansas, Maryland, Missouri, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah and Virginia) with more than 400 company-owned and franchise units anticipated in 16 states and Washington, DC.

Pie Five lets pizza lovers customize every aspect of their pizza. They can choose their favorite crust – artisan thin, classic pan, whole grain Neapolitan or gluten free thin – and then top it with their choice of seven sauces, four cheeses, eight meats and 16 veggies. Best of all, there’s no penalty for piling on...there’s more than a million combinations of handcrafted personal pizzas to choose from, all at the same low price.

Pizza Inn was founded in 1958 near Southern Methodist University in Dallas. As word spread of Pizza Inn’s exceptional food and friendly service, so did the popularity and number of new restaurants. For the next 30 years, Pizza Inn was a mainstay all across the southeastern and southwestern U.S. Today the brand operates more than 250 restaurants domestically and internationally with several new stores scheduled to open in the next year.
