Pizza Inn Announces $1M Franchise Incentive Program
America's Hometown Pizza Place launches major development package

DALLAS (March 12, 2020) – Amid strong interest from existing franchisees and robust same-store sales, Pizza Inn today announced the roll out of a major multi-unit incentive program designed to fuel additional buffet growth for the brand.

“Pizza Inn continues to offer strong unit economics and new market development opportunities,” said Brandon Solano, CEO of RAVE Restaurant Group. “Our new multi-unit incentive program will give both existing and potential franchisees added motivation to expand their portfolios with Pizza Inn and grow the brand in their communities.”

The new multi-unit incentive program is modeled to deliver incentives in excess of $1 million for new and existing franchisees developing at least five locations. The revenue-based incentives come from a combination of reduced royalties and initial franchise fees. Incentives are also available for development of at least one location.
